

Lesson - 2 Amazing Animals

Answer the following questions.

Q1. What does a habitat provide to the animals which live in it?

Ans A habitat provides all the basic needs such as air, water, food and shelter to the animal.

Q2. Name some animals that breathe through the gills.

Ans Fish, Prawns, crabs and tadpoles breathe with the help of gills.

Q3. How do frogs and butterflies eat their food?

Ans Frogs use their long, sticky tongue to catch insects and small worms. Butterflies suck the nectar from flowers through proboscis.

Q4. Why are feathers important to birds?

Ans Feathers help in flying, they protect birds from heat, rain and cold.

Q5. Describe the movement in fishes.

Ans Fishes swim with the help of their fins. The paired fins help them to swim, the tail fin helps them to change direction, while the unpaired fins help them to maintain balance.

Practice Zone

A. Choose the correct answer.

- Which of these animals lives in ocean and freshwater?
a. Fish ✓ b. Lizard c. Bear
- An animal living in the polar region have bodies covered with
a. moist skin b. scale c. fur ✓
- Insects breathe with the help of the
a. nose b. spiracles ✓ c. moist skin
- These help a snake to move.
a. Scales ✓ b. Wings c. Limbs

B. Fill in the blanks using suitable words.

- The ocean is the world's largest habitat.
- A bear's body has fur on it.
- Animals that eat only plants are called herbivores
- Frogs also breathe through the lungs when on land.
- Penguins and seals have flippers which help them in swimming.

Homework -

* Do question answer and book work in your notebook.